Purpose of this Form

This form collects personal information in accordance with section 26(c) of the Freedom Information and Protection of Privacy Act.

Your personal information is collected for the following purposes, and Hiyám Housing will use your information to:

- Determine eligibility;
- Assess housing needs; and
- To see if this type of housing is suitable to your needs.

Who should use this form?

You may be eligible for affordable homes with support at Eskékwí7ch t'l'a Sp'ákw'us Place if you:

- are a Squamish Nation Member
- are homeless or at risk of homelessness.
- are low-income.

Information for Outreach Workers or Applicant Advocates:

Please speak to Hiyám Housing staff to discuss options for submitting a letter of support or if you have further questions.

Affordable Homes with Supports

Each tenant will receive ample support in these units to ensure long-term stability and wellness while paying the maximum shelter rental rates for Income Assistance.

What does at Risk of Homelessness mean?

"At Risk of Homelessness" includes those who have been given a notice to vacate within three months without another place to live or living in a time-limited housing situation and waiting for a permanent form of housing, for example: living in a hotel, transitional home, staying with friends or family (couch surfing), or leaving an institution.

Eligibility

These homes will be exclusively for Squamish Nation Members: priority is given to vulnerable women and their children experiencing or at risk of homelessness. The second priority is for the homeless or at the risk of homeless who are families, elders, people with disabilities, and LGBTQ2SIA+.

How much is the Rent?

Income Assistance Maximum Shelter Rate.

Applications are due on Friday, September 29, 2023, and MUST BE received in our office by 4:30 pm.
